MARRIAGES.

SCOTT-DILL

At the minister's residence in Salem, July 8, 1913, Rev. P. S. Knight performed the ceremony that united as husband and wife, Walter Scott and Miss Sarah L. Dill, both of Scotts Mills in Marion county.

Only a few relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony.

BIRTHS.

THOMPSON.

To Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Thompson, at their home in St. Johns, Oregon, Tuesday, July 8, 1913, a boy.

Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Constance Holland of this city. She is a sister of Mrs. Ralph Glover.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and floral tributes during the illness and death of husband and father.

MRS. M. STENSTROM AND FAMILY.

Monesical.

A party of campers took up their mountain abode at nightfall in an old tumble-down hut. About 2 a. m. a polecat announced its presence in its own peculiar way. A German sat up and looked helplessly about him. The others were all sleeping peacefully.

"Mein gracious!" he exclaimed in tones of despair. "All the rest asleep and I've got to smell it all!"

Perfectly Plain.

Kirby Sotgo—I hate to mention it, dear, but I must tell you that business has been awfully poor lately. If you could economize a little in dresses—wear something plainer—

Mrs. Sotgo—Certainly, dear; I shall order some plainer dresses tomorrow.

GETS WORSE DOSE ON HIS SECOND TRIAL

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]

Seattle, Wash., July 9.—Following the recommendation of the jury, Judge Cushman sentenced Pedro Gonzales, convicted of murder in the first degree for killing Martin Chaharria, a soldier at Fort Lawton, to life imprisonment.

Fate or his lawyers, has been unkind to Gonzales. On a previous trial, he was found guilty of second degree murder, and might have escaped with a 20-year sentence. His lawyers obtained a new trial for him, with the more serious results.

ORDINANCE NO. 1227.

A BILL
For an ordinance making it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, other than the officers and employees of the city, when engaged in propelling fire or police apparatus through the public streets thereof, to operate or sound any siren alarm signal, or any other signalling device, emitting a similar noise in the city of Salem, Oregon.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, other than the officers and employees of the city of Salem, when engaged in propelling fire or police apparatus of the city of Salem through the public streets thereof, to operate or sound any siren, alarm signal or any other signalling device emitting a similar noise in the city of Salem, Oregon.

Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation, or the officers or agents of any firm or corporation, violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof before the city recorder, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100, or by imprisonment not exceeding twenty (20) days.

Passed by the common council this 30th day of June, 1913.

Attest:
CHAS. F. ELGIN, City Recorder.

Approved by the mayor this 3d day of July, 1913.
B. L. STEEVES, Mayor.

Sealed Proposals.
